

G7 Foreign Ministers' Meeting in Karuizawa (2023/4/27up)

For G7 Foreign Ministers' Meeting in Karuizawa, Nagano (4/16-18), Foreign Minister Yoshimasa Hayashi and the foreign ministers of each country arrived at Karuizawa Station by a special Shinkansen train at around 5:00 p.m..

As children from the Suzuki Method played the violin, they were welcomed by the Governor of Nagano Prefecture and the Mayor of Karuizawa. After a bouquet presentation by Karuizawa elementary and junior high school students, they headed for the meeting venue. On their way to the venue, the foreign ministers applauded the children's violin performance. They were also seen saying "bravo" to the children.
